Q1. FUNCTIONAL WRITING

Your class had been ranked by the school as the best overall in the examinations that were done last year. In this regard, the school then offered to take the class for a three day tour of interesting sites in the country to motivate you and boost your morale.

a) Write the personal journal that you kept. 16mks

b) Prepare the packing list that you also used. 4mks

2. CLOZE TEST

Use the most appropriate word to fill in the blank spaces in the passage below (10mks)

Many people are contented merely with the 1.....to construct correct, grammatical sentences. But that is not enough. In addition, we need to introduce 2.....in our sentence. If 3.....all begin in the same way; or if they are all on the same length, they become 4.....variety creates aof freshness. How would you like to eat the same type of food 6.....for a month; or to wear the same cloths or all occasions; or to have the same teacher for every lesson for a term? Most of us would get sick and tired.

Effective writing 7.....achieved when our sentences exhibit variety. A short sentence is striking and emphatic among longer ones, simply because of its 8.....when we examine paragraphs 9.....by good stylists, we notice that they 10.....their sentence construction: simple, compound and complex sentences all have their places. Variety is the spice of life, they say.
